Remembers Douglas C. Hansen

R.I.P.

Douglas C. Hansen

There will never be another Doug Hansen. This camp has lost a good friend and servant. He will never be forgotten. Doug was called from us, leaving the camp we all love in very good shape. Please, continue to pray for Cindy and their family.

Our new Adjutant is Compatriot Jack Wray. I want to thank everyone that volunteered to serve and every one of you would have done an outstanding job, but after reviewing the resumes sent in and consulting with our officers, I decided that Brother Jack is the man we need in this very important post.

Jack Wray is 68 years old. He holds A.B in mathematics, from Rhyne College and graduated from Lutheran Theological Southern Seminary in 1971 with a M. Div. For the next 22 years he served five congregations in Georgia and Tennessee. Has served on several committees for the Lutheran Church in America, Southeastern Synod. In 1993 Jack began a career in financial services. Since 2007 he has been retired. Since retiring he has started a new business he dearly enjoys. Historic Savannah By Foot, www.historicsavannahbyfoot.com

Jack married in 1971, has had only one wife, one son and two grandsons. He has been a member of our camp for three years. I am sure he will make us an outstanding Adjutant.

Our new camp address: SCV Camp 1657 #33 Oak Point. Savannah GA 31405	Jack Wray's phone # 912-596-2950 Email jcwray64@yahoo.com
